Re: Mediation - National Mutual Ins. V. Hohenberger & Case
Cause No. 1:19-cv-79

Dear Counsel:

I wish to report the status of the above mediation as follows:

Mediation Session: Tuesday, November 5, 2019, commencing at 9:00 a.m., reserving all day, to be held at the office of SIGLER LAW, LLC, 127 W. Berry Street, Suite 1000, Star Building, Fort Wayne, IN 46802.

Confidential Statements: Submit by October 29, 2019 to me at 127 W. Berry Street, Suite 1000, Fort Wayne, Indiana 46802. These statements will not be shared with opposing counsel. It would be helpful to me if your Confidential Statements include the following:

1. Statement of facts, including summary of specials and other damages;
2. Contentions and analysis of the case, including your observations of the strengths and weaknesses of each side;

127 W. Berry Street, Suite 1000, Star Building, Fort Wayne, IN 46802
Telephone: (260) 755-1583 Facsimile: (260) 420-1182

3. Identification and amounts of subrogation liens and other collateral source factors, as well as your sense of whether and to what extent the same can be compromised;
4. Status of litigation;
5. The history and present status of settlement efforts; and
6. Your opinions and the basis of verdict ranges and probabilities.

Mediation Agreement: Submitted herein. Please provide your respective copy of the such Agreement at the mediation session.

Please be advised that it will enhance our mediation efforts if we have all appropriate parties and representatives present for the above-listed mediation session. This directive may have particular significance if there exists a large subrogation lien(s), and the presence of the holder(s) is appropriate to facilitate and resolve all issues. Therefore, if the lienholder(s) should be included at the mediation session, kindly advise forthwith, so I can issue my request for their attendance.

Again, if there are additional suggestions or directions which might facilitate a successful mediation, please feel free to bring the same to my attention.

Sincerely,
SIGLER LAW, LLC

Daniel J. Sigler
